Hispanic Journalists and Communications Professionals Host Free Media Mixer in Downtown Dallas

Dallas, TX, June 10, 2011—The Hispanic Communicators DFW will host its fifth annual Media Mixer on Thursday, June 30, from 6:30-9 p.m. at House of Blues, 2200 N. Lamar St. in downtown Dallas.

Sponsored by Time Warner Cable, the free event is open to all media professionals and expected to attract more than 100 journalists, journalism educators, as well as professionals, in public relations, social media and mass communications.

“The evening of fun and networking brings together some of the top communicators in the region,” said Gary Piña of the Hispanic Communicators. “We are grateful for Time Warner Cable’s continued support of this event, which continues to grow annually.”

The group will be making a special announcement about the Hispanic Communicators’ 30th Anniversary Celebration in October, as well as drink specials, door prizes and a live DJ.

“It is an honor to help facilitate this evening of fun and networking,” said Gary Underwood, Vice President of Communications, Time Warner Cable. “We are dedicated to supporting the Hispanic Communicators DFW and the benefits it brings to its members and our community.”

An RSVP is required for admission. To RSVP and learn more about the event, please visit www.dfwhispanic.org.
